Generous gifts raise Holiday Appeal to $23G mark

By LAURIE PELLICHERO
Special to The Times

The generosity of The Times' readers continues to grow. Gifts of $300 from Jonathan and Jenny Crumiller of Princeton, $250 from Paul Crespy of Edison and $200 from R.D. Lohman of Lawrenceville help bring the total raised for the 2005 Times Holiday Appeal for the American Red Cross of Central New Jersey to $23,025 to date.

When the appeal total hit $20,000, American Standard, which operates a Trane manufacturing facility in Hamilton, pledged to match the next $5,000 raised by the community. That leaves just $1,975 left to meet the company's match.

who sent a gift of $100 "In memory of William H. Cherry;" Leslie Morton of Hamilton Square, $100; and James and Janet Reese of Pennington, $100 with a note, "In memory of friends that left us this year — Maria Yanno and Bob Mercantini."

"Chambersburg Johnny" Macciocca sent $50 "In memory of Rich Bilotti's mom;" Pearl A. Feldmesser of Skillman, $50; Herbert and Lynn Tritremmel of Trenton, $50; T. Cregg and Patricia Mad-
